

HUTTOFT PRIMARY SCHOOL (Academy)

WHOLE SCHOOL POLICY

Reviewed Autumn 2019

Aims of our School – in summary

- To equip each child with the basic skills for life – (reading, writing, maths, communication, healthy life-style)
- To develop whatever special skills and abilities he/she may possess to their fullest potential
- To equip each child with the learning skills needed for a successful and happy secondary education.

The Ethos of Our School

- A caring, happy extended family atmosphere.
- Governors and staff encourage parents/carers to participate fully in the life of the School.
- Children's work is valued and carefully displayed. Successes are well celebrated every week.
- We value property of the School and other people's property, to make an enjoyable environment for all.

Attitudes We Hope to Foster in our Children

- To be polite and caring and to value the work and opinions of others.
- To work co-operatively with one another, teachers, parents, governors and other adults.
- To work from first hand experiences wherever possible and so contribute to a broad, balanced and relevant curriculum.
- To select appropriate apparatus for tasks in an independent and confident way.

- To always 'have a go' and put in maximum effort to all activities.

What we Offer our Children

- Equal access to all areas of the curriculum through cross curricular activities.
- Regular reviews of the curriculum and a whole school framework for planning and delivering the National Curriculum Programmes of Study and our own.
- Those children with Special Educational Needs will be identified at the earliest possible stage and then supported to suit their individual need.
- High aspirations for all and for those children who are 'more able,' identification and further challenge.
- An efficient system of Assessment and Record Keeping, understood by children and known to parents.
- Regular opportunities for parents to visit the school and discuss their individual progress with the teachers.
- All children have the opportunity to participate in parent/teacher consultations
- 'A voice' to share their ideas and opinions through the Query Crew
- A safe, happy and exciting environment
- Enriching activities are offered to all children e.g., sports, cooking, music, visiting artists, trips etc.
- Extended provision at the start and end of the day.
