Building Foundations, Enabling Discovery, Broadening Horizons

Welcome to the Huttoft Primary & Nursery School Newsletter for May 2023!

Uniform Update...

We would like to share an update from our CEO, Mrs James:

"Thank you to everyone who took time to share feedback about the Uniform Policy. I have taken many things away from the meeting last Friday and the emails I have received, mostly that as parents and carers you are passionate, not only about your children, but also about your school. I hope that the following information goes some way to show that I value the important part you play in the school community and my commitment to ensure your voices continue to be heard.

Red gingham dresses can be worn during the summer term this year, with immediate effect. This is in recognition that the notice period was short and purchases have been made.

In September 2023, the school will contact parents and carers for their views about the Uniform Policy, followed by a meeting of the Parent Forum. This information will feed into an early review of the policy by the Local Governing Body in October 2023. The review will include reconsideration of costs, particularly where branded items are listed.

We will ensure parents/carers are involved in any future review of uniform at other primary schools within the Trust who, I have recently learnt, also have blue gingham dresses available to them – I haven't seen any so far, but hope to see children enjoying wearing them this summer."
